

Skin Cancer Awareness in the Dermal, Hair, Cosmetic, Beauty and Wellness Industries

Date & Time: 9am to 3pm (AEST), 7th November 2023

Location: (In-person) UQ Oral Health Centre, Herston, Brisbane, Queensland and (Virtual) Zoom

Time	Topic Overview	Presenter
Session 1: Skin Cancer Prevention Queensland
9am – 10am	Welcome and Opening <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Skin cancer reduction targets – 2030 and 2050 2022 sunscreen industry forum outcomes and next steps 	Professor Rachel Neale Co-Chair, Skin Cancer Prevention Queensland QIMR Berghofer Professor Monika Janda Co-Chair, Skin Cancer Prevention Queensland University of Queensland
	A brief overview of skin cancer: causes, burden, control and costs in Australia	Professor Louisa Gordon QIMR Berghofer
	What are the different types of skin cancer? Including rare and special cases (scalp, nails, feet)	Professor Peter Soyer Dermatology Research Centre University of Queensland
	Skin protection: Indoors, outdoors and in between doors	Dr Yousuf Mohammed Senior Research Fellow Frazer Institute, University of Queensland
10am	5 minute stretch break
Session 2: The perspective of the industry on skin cancer prevention
10.05am – 11.00m	Queensland Health's policy and investment directions to reduce skin cancer rates	Adjunct Associate Professor Mark West Executive Director, Prevention Strategy Branch, Queensland Health
	How hairdressers and beauticians can help clients with skin cancer prevention and detection	Jan Gawel Chief Executive Officer Hair and Beauty Australia Industry Association
	Current beauty and hairdressing curriculum and how to fill the gaps to educate students on skin cancer prevention	Hayley Griffiths Chief Executive Officer Skin Deep Learning
	Cancer Council Queensland skin prevention resources	Sharyn Chin Fat Prevention and Early Detection Manager Cancer Council Queensland
11.00am – 11.45am MORNING TEA
Session 3: Role of the Beauty Industry to Improve Skin Awareness
11:45am – 1:00pm	Speak up about Skin! Harnessing the power of informed conversation	Lynette Hunt Chief Executive Officer Skin Cancer College Australasia
	Skin (Dermal) Health Professionals: Working Toward Improving Interprofessional Practice	Jennifer Byrne Dermal Clinician and Lecturer in Dermal Science Victoria University
	Consumer perspective	Anne Gately Consumer Representative – melanoma Patients Australia

Time	Topic Overview	Presenter
	You noticed something on your client's skin: what should you do?	Dr Jeremy Hudson General Practitioner, Chair of Dermatology Royal Australian College of General Practitioners
	Interactive session How can we work together to achieve optimal skin awareness
1:00pm – 2:00pm LUNCH
Session 4: Panel Discussion
2:00pm – 3.00pm	Discussion Topics: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reflecting on the day and how we can work together to improve skin cancer prevention and early detection activities. • What research ideas can we progress together? 	Facilitator: Professor Rachel Neale Co-Chair, Skin Cancer Prevention Queensland Panel members: Dr Jeremy Hudson Jennifer Bryne Lisa Della-Bosca Jan Gawel